WHO ARE WE?

Founded in 2001 by the Rev. Drs. Johnnie Colemon and Mary Tumpkin, the Johnnie Colemon Theological Seminary (JCTS) is the Education Arm of the Universal Foundation for Better Living (UFBL).

U.F.B.L. VISION STATEMENT

The Universal Foundation for Better Living aspires to be an empowering agent that prepares and supports leaders and their congregations to do ministry effectively in the world.

PURPOSE STATEMENT

The primary purpose of the Johnnie Colemon Theological Seminary is the education and training of women and men for the ministries of the New Thought Christian movement. Its primary objective is to offer comprehensive educational programs. These programs will enable its students to qualify for the degree/certification/continuing education of their choice, which is offered by the Seminary.

MISSION STATEMENT

The Johnnie Colemon Theological Seminary (JCTS) is a multi-cultural, inclusive school for education in training and ministry. Our mission is to prepare spiritual leaders to establish and develop empowerment centers throughout the world. We provide an atmosphere that will encourage men and women to model the message of Jesus the Christ in relevant and practical ways. We promote the empowerment of all peoples through learning and practicing principles handed down through the ages and taught by Jesus the Christ.
